8. SUMMARY OF LESSONS LEARNED FROM HIS OR HER LIFE

The outstanding characteristic of Stephen was his commitment to the Lord and his willingness to do anything for him, including giving up his life.

This commitment is seen in the fact that he was a man who walked with God (he was “full of the Spirit and wisdom . . . faith . . . God’s grace and power”). He had a great testimony before others in the church. He witnessed to people both in life and in death.

He was, furthermore, a man of the Word. He really knew his Bible—the Old Testament. He must have spent hours studying the scrolls and the parchments.

9. PERSONAL APPLICATION

I need to become a person like Stephen—a person of the Word who knows Jesus Christ intimately and who is able to answer others with Scripture when they ask questions. As a result of this study, I will commit myself to having a daily quiet time for at least 15 minutes to get to know Christ better. I will also commit myself to memorizing two Scripture verses each week so that I can answer people who ask me questions.

10. TRANSFERABLE CONCEPTS (Ways I can share this with others)

The concepts in this study that are transferable:

- A. The necessity of a personal walk with Jesus Christ. The only way we can become men and women of faith and wisdom like Stephen is to have a daily quiet time with the Lord. Stephen had a dynamic walk with Jesus Christ.
- B. The necessity of being in the Word of God on a regular basis—Bible study and Scripture memory. If I am to know my Bible as Stephen did, I need to spend quality time in it and be able to teach others how to do so as well. This book is one means to help me do so. I need to share these methods with others.
- C. The necessity of courage in times of adversity and persecution. I need to pray that God will give me boldness with others.
